  Lyrics

  [Verse 1]

[F] Tranquila voy

[M] mientras estoy

[F] con mi vida honrada

[M] sin deberle nada a nadie

[F] No espero regresos

[M] no vueltas de suerte

[F] ya estoy viejo

[M] y sé bien lo que cuesta

[Pre-Chorus]

[F] No quiero pedir

[M] solo respirar

[F] dejar que la tarde

[M] me venga a buscar

[F] Si algo bueno cae

[M] que me encuentre aquí

[F] con las manos quietas

[M] y el corazón por fin

[Chorus]

[F] Que me pase algo bueno

[M] que me pase algo bueno

[F] Que me pase algo bueno

[M] hoy, de una vez, por dentro

[F] Alegría

[M] dame un poco de alegría

[F] Que me pase algo bueno

[M] que me cure la vida

[Verse 2]

[F] Ya vi pasar

[M] tanto ruido y prisa

[F] tanta ropa fina

[M] y tan poca dicha

[F] Yo guardo el pan

[M] guardo la palabra

[F] una mesa simple

[M] y la puerta abierta

[Pre-Chorus]

[F] Si llega el sol

[M] que me toque a mí

[F] si llega la risa

[M] que se quede aquí

[F] No pido de más

[M] solo un buen favor

[F] una señal pequeña

[M] una mano de amor

[Chorus]

[F] Que me pase algo bueno

[M] que me pase algo bueno

[F] Que me pase algo bueno

[M] hoy, de una vez, por dentro

[F] Alegría

[M] dame un poco de alegría

[F] Que me pase algo bueno

[M] que me cure la vida

[Bridge]

[F] Y si el mundo aprieta

[M] yo no me voy

[F] sigo con mi paso

[M] sigo como soy

[F] Con mi frente alta

[M] con mi pan en paz

[F] que venga lo bueno

[M] yo lo sabré mirar

[Chorus]

[F] Que me pase algo bueno

[M] que me pase algo bueno

[F] Que me pase algo bueno

[M] hoy, de una vez, por dentro

[F] Alegría

[M] dame un poco de alegría

[F] Que me pase algo bueno

[M] que me cure la vida

Que Me Pase Bueno

Que Me Pase Bueno

Varias escenas en ingles

Escenas para videoclip en inglés

Scene 1 — Quiet Morning

Visual: A woman opens the curtains in a small, peaceful home. Soft morning light fills the room. A man prepares coffee in the kitchen.

Mood: Calm, honest, hopeful.
Lyrics:
“Tranquila voy / mientras estoy / con mi vida honrada”

Scene 2 — Walking Through the Neighborhood

Visual: The woman walks slowly through a quiet neighborhood while the man walks on the opposite side of the street. They do not meet yet.

Camera: Gentle tracking shots, warm natural light.

Lyrics:
“No espero regresos / no vueltas de suerte”

Scene 3 — The Weight of Time

Visual: Close-ups of old photographs, worn hands, a simple jacket, and a clock moving slowly. The man looks through the window, thoughtful but peaceful.

Mood: Reflective, mature.
Lyrics:
“Ya estoy viejo / y sé bien lo que cuesta”

Scene 4 — Afternoon Light

Visual: The woman sits alone on a bench as golden afternoon light falls across her face. The man sits at a nearby table, breathing deeply and letting go of his worries.

Lyrics:
“Solo respirar / dejar que la tarde / me venga a buscar”

Scene 5 — Something Good Arrives

Visual: A child gives the woman a small flower. At the same time, a neighbor leaves fresh bread at the man’s door. Both smile with quiet surprise.

Mood: Tender, understated joy.
Lyrics:
“Si algo bueno cae / que me encuentre aquí”

Scene 6 — First Chorus: Inner Joy

Visual: The woman and the man sing separately in different locations. Their images alternate with scenes of sunlight, open windows, and people smiling in the street.

Camera: Slow-motion details, warm colors, subtle lens flare.
Lyrics:
“Que me pase algo bueno / hoy, de una vez, por dentro”

Scene 7 — A Simple Table

Visual: The man prepares a modest meal. He places bread, soup, and fruit on a wooden table. The woman opens her front door and invites an elderly neighbor inside.

Mood: Generosity and simplicity.
Lyrics:
“Yo guardo el pan / guardo la palabra / una mesa simple / y la puerta abierta”

Scene 8 — The Sun and the Laughter

Visual: Children play in a small plaza. The woman laughs with them. The man watches from a bench before joining a group of neighbors.

Camera: Handheld but smooth, with brighter movement.
Lyrics:
“Si llega el sol / que me toque a mí / si llega la risa / que se quede aquí”

Scene 9 — A Small Gesture of Love

Visual: The woman helps an old man cross the street. The man gives his coat to someone who is cold. Their acts of kindness connect the community.

Mood: Warm and human.
Lyrics:
“Una señal pequeña / una mano de amor”

Scene 10 — The World Presses In

Visual: Darker clouds cover the town. People rush through the streets. The woman and the man continue walking steadily, refusing to be overwhelmed.

Camera: Slightly slower motion, stronger shadows.
Lyrics:

“Y si el mundo aprieta / yo no me voy”

Scene 11 — Standing Tall

Visual: The woman and the man finally meet in the same plaza. They exchange a knowing smile. Behind them, the clouds begin to open and sunlight returns.

Mood: Dignity, resilience, quiet victory.
Lyrics:
“Con mi frente alta / con mi pan en paz”

Scene 12 — Final Chorus: Something Good

Visual: A joyful community gathering around a long outdoor table. The woman and the man sing together while neighbors clap softly. Children run through the scene.

Camera: Wide shots mixed with close-ups of smiling faces and joined hands.
Lyrics:
“Que me pase algo bueno / que me cure la vida”

Scene 13 — Final Image

Visual: At sunset, the woman and the man walk side by side down a peaceful street. The camera rises slowly above them as warm lights turn on in the houses.

Ending: They continue walking toward the light.
Final feeling: Hope, gratitude, and the belief that good things can still arrive.
